Yamazakura Peated Blended

Malt whisky made from peated malted barley and grain whisky. It is not chill-filtered and is aged in bourbon casks. The nose is sweet, with notes of caramel, light smoke and vanilla. The palate is delicious, with notes of peat, malt and citrus fruit. The finish is lingering, evoking vanilla, yellow fruit and smoke.

Peat, malt and citrus flavors

??????????????Tourbé???????
70cl - alc. 46 % vol.

Product Type: Japanese whisky
Category: Peated
Alcohol: Alc. 46% Vol.
Format: 70cl bottle
Producer: Sasanokawa Shuzo

About the distillery : Sasanokawa Shuzo is a Japanese distillery founded in 1765, based in Fukushima prefecture. Initially specializing in the production of shochu, a traditional Japanese spirit, the distillery has expanded its activities to include the manufacture of whisky. It is renowned for its high-quality shochu, distilled from a variety of raw materials. The distillery also produces whisky under brands such as Yamazakura.

Detailed tasting notes : This whisky has a sweet nose with notes of caramel and a hint of smoke. On the palate, it is generous, with pronounced flavors of peat, malt and citrus. The finish is persistent, characterized by nuances of smoke, vanilla and yellow fruit.